Jah Warrior Showcase Vol 3 features a selection of previously unreleased tunes recorded and mixed between 1998 and 2004.

Forward Rastaman by Peter Broggs was recorded at Conscious Sounds in London, 2002. It originally appeared on the Fire Fe Lucifer album released in 2009. This version was remixed by Russ Disciples at Backyard Studios, London.

Mr Walk and Talk by Hughie Izachaar was recorded and mixed in 1998 at Conscious Sounds in London. An alternative dub mix titled “Walking Talking Dub” was released on Jah Warrior’s Dub From The Heart Part 2 album in 1998 but the vocal and this dub have never been released until now.

This Is How We Pray by Jah Mason was recorded in 2004 at Conscious Sounds in London. A Dougie Conscious steppers remix was released in 2022 on Jah Warrior 12 inch but this original one drop mix by Russ Disciples is previously unreleased. The riddim is a version of the late 1970's Augustus Pablo produced Earth Wind and Fire by Paul Blackman.

Wash That Woman by Horace Andy was recorded and mixed in 2002 at Conscious Sounds in London. An alternative dub mix appeared on the various artists “Jah Warrior And Friends” released on CD by French label Hammerbass in 2003. The vocal and this dub mix are previously unreleased.

It's Your Society by Lutan Fyah was recorded in 2003 at Conscious Sounds in London. The original one drop mix with horns was released by French label The Age Of Venus in 2004, both on 7 inch and on the Various Artists Jah Warrior CD "Warrior Style." This stripped back steppers remix has never seen release until now.

No Bush Herb by Ranking Joe was recorded on a steppers cut of the Cuss Cuss riddim in 2003 at Conscious Sounds in London. It was mixed at Backyard Studio in London by Russ Disciples in 2006 and is unreleased until now.

Easy Now was the original riddim for Afrikan Simba's Patience. It was recorded and mixed in 1999 at Conscious Sounds in London before being voiced by Afrikan Simba for the first Jah Warrior Showcase album. These versions are previously unreleased.
